The French Opera Guild of the Master Institute of New York is a membership organization formed this year, to promote a greater interest in French Opera. Its further purpose is to enable a discerning audience to hear works of famous composers interpreted by singers who are well acquainted with the repertoire. It is hoped that friends of French Opera will give their support to the undertaking. Contributions toward our reserve fund for production will be gladly received.

Classes of Membership: Professional—$15; Associate—$10; Sustaining—$25; Benefactors—$100.

Privileges: Professional membership entitles one to coaching in French diction and acting— Twice monthly— 5 months.

Associate and Sustaining membership and Benefactors have the privilege of admission to the series of Operas presented by the French Opera Guild.

For Application for membership, address Master Institute, 310 Riverside Drive, New York City.
