CONTEST FOR AMERICAN OPERA
ANNOUNCED BY MASTER INSTITUTE OF ROERICH MUSEUM.

The Contest calls for a One Act Opera written during the last ten years, either published or in manuscript form.

No limitations are set as to the subject of libretto, but the conditions of the Contest call for an Opera without chorus or back-stage chorus, with chamber music orchestra, and utilizing a cast of no more than five parts.

The time of performance should be not more than forty (40) minutes.

The scores, including libretto, must be delivered not later than November 20th to the Master Institute of Roerich Museum -310 Riverside Drive. The name and address of the composer must accompany the submitted material.

The composer whose Opera will be chosen for the production will be asked to furnish all instrumental and vocal parts outside of the score. The Opera chosen by the jury will be produced this season at the Roerich Hall -the theatre of Roerich Museum by the Master Institute of Roerich Museum.

The contestants are to call for their material from December 4th to December 11th. No responsibility will be taken for material left by the contestants after the latter date.
