

MASTER INSTITUTE OF UNITED ARTS
Announces Courses in
The Modern Forms of The Dance
Under the Direction of
ELIZABETH WATERS

MISS WATERS has had an extensive and varied career as a dancer and teacher. She studied with Ruth St. Denis, America's foremost oriental dancer, also with Perry-Mansfield. Miss Waters toured with the Perry-Mansfield Dancers, also appeared in New York concerts with Lisa Parnova. For three years Miss Waters was head assistant at the Miriam Winslow School of the Dance in Boston. During the summers she has been instructor at the Sargent Summer Camp at Peterboro, New Hampshire.

Further information may be obtained at the Master Institute office, third floor, 310 Riverside Drive, New York. Telephone: ACademy 2-3860.

Dancing is one of the strongest creative impulses. Not only does it give health and vitality to adults as well as children, but it develops a finer and deeper perception of life.

The Courses are designed to develop freedom of movement, broadening sense of rhythm, and to stimulate the creativeness of the individual.

Blind Students—Special Course

Realizing the growing need for imparting the knowledge of art and beauty to those who have been deprived of sight, Miss Waters, thru the medium of The Dance, has evolved a systematic course which will not only facilitate bodily grace and coordination in the blind, but will also tend to awaken their creative potentialities.

This work will be given in class form, for children and adults.

Tuition for this course will be $5.00 per month.

A limited number of scholarships will be given in all courses.

Scholarship applicants must apply to Master Institute office.
