

MASTER INSTITUTE
Department of Arts and Sciences
310 Riverside Drive - New York

The Master Institute announces the 1936-37 program of events, commencing October 15th and continuing to May 15th. This series is outlined to meet the interest in cultural movements and requirements of Adult Education as well as to provide opportunity for contact with distinguished leaders and representatives in the various fields of Arts and Letters.

THE PROGRAM WILL INCLUDE COURSES AND LECTURES ON THE FOLLOWING SUBJECTS:
Modern Art - The Theatre - Sociology - Psychology - Literature -
Decorative Arts - Scientific trends - Travelogues - Chamber Music - Poetry - Recitals - Operettas - Dramatic and Dance Performances.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP - TEN DOLLARS

Members are entitled to free admission to all events included in schedule.

FOR NON-MEMBERS, admission and free events are indicated below.

OCTOBER - 1936

Oct.15	THEATRE PERFORMANCE, "NO KING'S SERVANT" - Directed by Stuart Beebe and sponsored by Martin Jones, Producer of "New Faces".
Oct.16	SONG RECITAL - Elmo Russ, Composer, Pianist
Oct.19	SERIES - CREATIVE SOCIAL CHANGE, Spencer Heath. Society, the Highest Organization of Life. Inherent Rights viewed as Inherent Functions.	Adm. .25
Oct.20	ILLUSTRATED TRAVELOGUE - "Glimpses of Norway" Gladys Petch.	Adm. Free
Oct.21	LECTURE RECITAL - "What Constitutes a Musical Country" Mary Howe	Adm. .50
Oct.22	PINNOCCCHIO - Dance Drama with Edwin Strawbridge, Lisa Parnova and Ballett. Music by Mabel Wood Hill. Costumes by Pogany.
Oct.23	CINEMA EVENING
Oct.26	LECTURE - The Double Heritage of Mankind - Destructive, Creative. Spencer Heath.	Adm. .25
Oct.28	LECTURE RECITAL - Music, the Universal Language. Mary Howe	Adm. .50
Oct.29	EMERSON GROUP - Essay on Nature - Dr. Charles Fleisher	Adm. Free

All Events start at 8:30

For Information regarding membership or Schedule of Events,
Write or telephone Mrs. N. Horch, Director,
Master Institute, 310 Riverside Drive - Academy 4-1700.

Non-members who wish notification of future events, kindly send postcard with name and address.

THEATRE UNIT OFFERS COMPLETE COURSES IN ACTING, VOICE, AND DANCE.

