

MASTER INSTITUTE PRESENTS

COURSE OF LECTURES ON METHODS AND MATERIALS OF PAINTING

Master Institute announces a course of five lectures under Ralph Mayer, well-known lecturer on the technology of Painting. The course will be given Mondays, beginning January 11th, at 8:30 P.M. in the Hall of the East, Roerich Museum, 310 Riverside Drive.

The course of five lectures will be given on METHODS AND MATERIALS OF PAINTING, with demonstrations, and will cover the following subjects:

1. General outline covering the media of painting and some fundamental principles.
2. Choice and Preparation of Grounds. The technique of Oil Painting.
3. Tempera Painting.
4. Variations and Combinations of the technique of Fresco Painting and its modifications.
5. Color and Color Theory. Manipulations and Recipes.

The enrolment is now open and further information may be obtained at the office of the Master Institute of Roerich Museum, 310 Riverside Drive, New York.