

MASTER INSTITUTE
DEPARTMENT OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
310 RIVERSIDE DRIVE • NEW YORK

announces a series of Lectures on

WORLD MINDS IN DIFFERENT AGES

by

HEIMAN K. BLATT, M.A.

Lecturer on Social Sciences and Literature

Author of "Sons of Men"

Tuesday Evenings at 8:30 P.M.

Nov. 17th—

Aristotle and the Classical Ideal of "Nothing to Excess."

Jan. 19th—

Leonardo da Vinci and the versatility of the Renaissance.

Feb. 16th—

Voltaire and the Age of Reason.

Mar. 16th—

Darwin and his influence on Social Evolution.

Apr. 20th—

Freud and the role of the Subconscious in an Age of Pragmatism.

Admission, Non-Members, 25 Cents Each Lecture

For information regarding lectures and schedule of events write to Director, Master Institute, Department of Arts and Sciences, 310 Riverside Drive.

THE ARCHIVE OF
NICHOLAS ROERICH MUSEUM