CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO AN EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS
By

ELIOT CLARK

APRIL 15TH TO 29TH, 1931
Daily - 10 A. M. TO 5 P. M.

310 RIVERSIDE DRIVE
(COR. 103RD ST.)
NEW YORK CITY

THE present Exhibition of Paintings by ELIOT CLARK is composed principally of travel studies on the Continent and North Africa. The personal record of a definite environment and a living reaction rather than an echo of theoretical formula or abstract design, the pictures reflect the pensive grays of Tuscan winter, the tranquility of the Venetian lagoon or the intimate appeal of our native background. Each mood finds its response in the design it suggests rather than a predetermined one imposed upon it.

ELIOT CLARK is a member of the important Art organizations and Clubs of the country and a contributor to its annual exhibitions. His picture, "Rolling Country" was purchased from the Corcoran Gallery, Washington, D. C., by the late President Wilson, about which the President wrote:

"I have hung your picture in the study here and derive a great deal of pleasure from it daily. It seems to me a peculiarly delightful piece of painting."

MR. CLARK has been awarded the Hallgarten Prize at the National Academy; the Ranger Fund Purchase; the Edgar Davis Prize, San Antonio, and is represented in a number of our national museums and numerous private collections. A series of pictures have been reproduced in the "Century Magazine" and "Country Life in America."
