

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS OF ROERICH MUSEUM

SRI RAGINI

Singer of Hindu Songs

Dancer of Hindu Dances

Player upon the Tambura and Sitar

TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 7th, at 8.30 P.. M.

IN ROERICH HALL

310 Riverside Drive, N. Y.

PROGRAM

1. HINDU CONCEPTION OF MUSIC AND DANCE
2. SONGS OF THE INNER SPIRIT.....Tambura accompaniment
3. POPULAR MELODY MOODS.....With the Sitar
4. DANCE-GARLANDS! GARLANDS!
A flower girl goes through the streets in the bazaars singing:
"From fresh plucked flowers this garland I've wove,
Adorned with happiness is the one who wears it."
5. CHARACTERISTIC NAUTCH-YOUTH
In Indian villages water is brought morning and evening from wells and streams and carried in jars. The village belles gather at these times to frolic. The dance recalls one of these entranced with her own charms. She brims over with life as her jar does with water.
6. PRELUDE, Opus 27.....DÉSIR Scriabine
IDA GOLDSTEIN
7. APSARA—CELESTIAL NYMPH
8. ORIENTALE Amani
IDA GOLDSTEIN
9. DANCE OF RADHA
Radha (partner of Krishna in the Eternal dance) is enraptured with the music of Krishna's flute. While she dances, she describes his gestures and amorous glances—Symbolizing the realization of God through the Rasas (the emotions or sense-activities.)

IDA GOLDSTEIN

(Member of the Faculty of Master Institute)
at the Piano

Following the Program the Roerich Museum will be open to the Audience.

Sri Ragini will be delighted to meet the audience after the Recital.

Sri Ragini announces a course in the art of Hindu Dancing, at the Master Institute of Roerich Museum beginning January 17th, 1930. For information inquire at office of Master Institute of Roerich Museum, 310 Riverside Drive.

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS OF ROERICH MUSEUM

SRI RAGINI

Singer of Hindu Songs
Dancer of Hindu Dances
Tapers upon the Tambura and Sitar

TUESDAY EVENING JANUARY 26 at 8:30 P. M.
IN ROERICH HALL
310 Riverside Drive, N. Y.

PROGRAM

- 4. HINDU CONCEPTION OF MUSIC AND DANCE
- 3. SONGS OF THE INNER SPIRIT (Tambura accompaniment)
- 2. POPULAR MELODY MOODS (With the Sitar)

1. RAGINI-GARLAND (GARLAND)
A flower girl goes through the streets in the bazaars singing:

"From fresh plucked flowers the garland I've woven
Adorned with happiness is the one who wears it."

- 5. CHARACTERISTIC SATCHI-YOUTH
In Indian villages water is brought morning and evening from wells and streams and carried in pots. The village belles gather at these times to fetch the water. One of these extracted with her own charm. She brings over with life as her lot with water.

6. PRELUDE Opus 27
IDA GOLDSTEIN

7. APARAA--CELESTIAL NYMPH
Aparaa

8. ORIENTALE
IDA GOLDSTEIN

9. DANCE OF RADHA
Radha (partner of Krishna in the Bharata dance) is portrayed with the music of Krishna's flute. While she dances she makes his wishes and answers his wishes--symbolizing the realization of love through the Rasas (the emotions or sense-activities).

IDA GOLDSTEIN
(Member of the Faculty of Music Institute at the Piano)

Following the Program the Roerich Museum will be open to the public.
Sri Ragini will be delighted to meet the audience after the Roerich

Sri Ragini announces a course in the art of Hindu Music at the Museum Institute of Roerich Museum
For information inquire at office of Museum Institute
310 Riverside Drive

THE ARCHIVE OF
NICHOLAS
ROERICH
MUSEUM