

ЧУРАЕВКА

CHURAEVKA

SOUTHBURY, CONN.

U. S. A.

Russian Festival

At Churaevka, Southbury, Connecticut

(Just beyond Lake Zoar)

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1930

---

Program

- I. 10:00-11:00 A. M.—Arrival of Guests.
12:00 o'clock—First Assembly in St. Sergious Chapel.
- II. Speakers: Igor I. Sikorsky, Foremost Russian Inventor.
Louis L. Horch, President, Roerich Museum.
Eugene A. Moskoff, Russian Journalist.
George D. Grebenstchikoff, Russian Novelist.
- III. 1:30 P. M. Luncheon among the Birches.
Booths for Refreshments—Russian pirojky, sandwiches,
tea, coffee, Gifts and Books.
Proceeds go toward activities in "Churaevka."
- IV. 3:00 P. M. Lecture by Igor I. Sikorsky, "Conquering the Air."
4:00 P. M. Concert by Russian Trio of E. F. Anop.
Other well known artists to be announced.
- V. 5:00-7:00 P. M. Wandering about Churaevka Woods.
- VI. 8:00 P. M. Siberian Fairy-tale, by George Greben-stchikoff.
Russian Songs and Dances around Camp Fire.

---

Admission, 50 cents; Children under 12, Free.

---

Given under Auspices of Siberia Association of Friends of Roerich Museum and Society of Friends of Culture.

When in New York visit the Roerich Museum,
310 Riverside Drive and 103rd Street.

THE ARCHIVE OF
NICHOLAS ROERICH
MUSEUM