HEART

“HEART”, the third Volume to be published in English of the Agni Yoga Series, continues the Great Teaching of the East as transmitted to contemporary humanity in the hour of its need.

Bringing to the West for the first time, the Yoga of Fire, “AGNI YOGA”, the First Book of this Series, set forth Asia’s Immemorial concept of the present Era with its mighty evolutionary processes, its superworld currents and the labors of Cosmos for the salvation of Earth.

In “HIERARCHY”, the Second Book, was expressed the connection of the individual to the Hierarchal Forces which guide the universal evolutionary processes, and the compassionate aid given to man in his striving towards perfection.

“HEART” propounds the means of this connection—the Heart as the intermediary between man and the Infinite forces of ascent. “Verily, the Silver Thread which links the Teacher with the disciple is the Great Magnet of the Heart”, says the Teaching. And throughout this Book, the Heart is affirmed as the salving force of man: the Heart as the bridge to the far-off worlds; the Heart as the link with the Hierarchal Forces; the Heart as the Sun of the human spirit; the Heart as the true Light of existence. Here the Heart—long bemeaned as solely a physiological organ or a vague symbol—assumes its mission as the Vital and Fiery Principle of Life and the Creator of the human destiny.

At the time when human conventional evaluations are crumbling, the Teaching of the “HEART” presents itself at once as an anchor and a sesame—an anchor of strength in the unprecedented gale that lashes all existence; and a Sesame to the Fiery World of the spirit.
