

From "Hierarchy"

"So much has been said about doctrines; yet humanity does not know how to accept the Doctrine of Brotherhood. How many distortions have been accumulated about the truth! How many principles have been destroyed! They will ask, 'On what stronghold is the Brotherhood built?' Answer, 'On the doctrine of the heart, the doctrine of labor, the doctrine of beauty, the doctrine of evolution, the doctrine of tensivity, the doctrine of the most vital.'"

HIERARCHY

HOW shall humanity withstand?

How will man master the mighty cosmic rays, the magnetic superworld currents, which western science is now beginning to discover?

As in the case of Western Science, the great thought of Asia sees our present age as an Era of Fire. Out of the Space which surrounds our planet, great cosmic fiery streams are inundating the world.

In Agni Yoga, for the first time, was brought to the West this Yoga of Fire, as it is called. This teaching is the great Vedic recognition of the new forces which are approaching humanity, the new evolutionary processes which are beginning to make themselves felt. AGNI YOGA told of the mastery of these energies as conceived by the East in accordance with its age-old traditions. In this work was reflected the means of utilizing the energies which fill the Macrococosm and which are equally demonstrated in the microcosm.

In HIERARCHY, which continues the Agni Yoga Series, is expressed the Relationship of the individual to the Hierarchical Forces which guide the Evolution of Humanity. In this work is indicated the sacred concept of pupil and Teacher; the compassionate Aid given to humanity in the endless march of cosmic progress. The tireless labor of the Brotherhood, the Hierarchical host, is revealed in this Work as the one path to salvation.

Numerous other aspects of this all-embracing theme are discussed in this Great Work which should be not only an inspiration but a revelation to those who feel that new foundations of consciousness are necessary in the present day, and that humanity must find a new basis of life, if it is to fulfill its spiritual destiny.
